SD Art Prize 2015

The SD Art Prize 2015 emerging artist recipients have now been announced. The established artist Wendy Maruyama has chosen Peter Scheidt and Roy McMakin has chosen Kevin Inman. These 2015 SD Art Prize recipients will be exhibiting at the ART SD Contemporary Art Fair Nov. 5-8, 2015, and the Athenaeum Music & Arts Library in La Jolla from May 7-June 11, 2016,

The 2015 nominating committee, which changes yearly, consists of SD Art Prize recipients for the previous year, writers for the SD Art Prize Art Notes and the SD Art Prize committee: All emerging artists in the SD region are eligible to be chosen by the established recipients each season including but not limited to those shown in the New Contemporaries exhibition of nominated artists this year held at Valencia Gallery from Friday May 1 through Friday May 29.

SD Art Prize has included 36 artists to date and another 104 emerging artists have displayed in the New Contemporaries exhibitions. We have held 28 exhibitions so far and the San Diego Visual Arts Network has raised and awarded $56,000 in grants. One hundred and thirty press articles have appeared in the last 9 years.

Peter Scheidt

Peter Scheidt's recent studio furniture work interrogates furniture as a cultural and social formation. Theoretical reflection is important to his practice and he strives to create innovative work, which integrates theory and practice. He often operates in a realm of irony and contradiction, simultaneously respecting furniture's long craft tradition but also working irreverently with furniture objects. As machines have changed production methods and materials, the difference in value between artisanal handwork and production work (by human hand or machine) has drastically increased. Manufacturing technologies, driven by desires of economy and profit shape the image of the furniture we surround ourselves with - whether it is the design decisions made by a lone craftsman based on efficiency of labor, or driven by the bottom line of a big box store. By working with found furniture or found designs, he is able to begin a conversation with the viewer which is already loaded with rich history and meaning for both artist and audience.

Scheidt graduated with a BA in critical media theory from Brown University and is currently a graduate student at San Diego State University. He has worked designing and building furniture independently and collaboratively since 2005.

Kevin Inman

Kevin Inman is a San Diego painter, focusing on landscape and cityscape oil paintings. Inman often works outdoors, making intimately scaled plein-air studies. These small works aim to capture the light, color, and atmosphere of a place and are used to gather information for studio works. For the past several years, Inman has blogged these daily painting efforts.

Inman was born in Honolulu in 1980. Raised in a military family, he led a nomadic existence at duty stations around the US and in Japan. Inman studied at the Universidad de Valencia, Spain, received a BA from the University of Virginia, and a MFA from Radford University. He has exhibited in solo and group shows around the US. The Termite House painting above was recently included in the California Dreaming exhibition at the Oceanside Museum of Art.

The SD ART PRIZE is dedicated to the idea that the visual arts are a necessary and rewarding ingredient of any world-class city and a building block of the lifestyle of its residents. Conceived to promote and encourage dialogue, reflection and social interaction about San Diego's artistic and cultural life, this annual award honors artistic expression. The SD ART PRIZE, a cash prize with exhibition opportunities, spotlights established San Diego artists and emerging artists whose outstanding achievements in the field of Visual Arts merit the recognition.

San Diego Visual Arts Network strives to improve the clarity, accuracy and sophistication of discourse about San Diego's artistic and cultural life. SDVAN provides a resource-rich website and facilitates countless opportunities for inspiration and collaboration on visual arts projects. This is the only site designed exclusively for Visual Arts in the San Diego region. SDVAN is a 100% volunteer non-profit organization dedicated to reinforcing the idea that the visual arts are a necessary and vital part of the health of our city. SDVAN lists over 2200 visual arts resources and gets over one million hits a year.

Athenaeum Music & Arts Library The Athenaeum Music & Arts Library has earned a reputation as one of the outstanding art galleries and art collectors in San Diego. The Athenaeum's art exhibition program, begun in the 1920s, has grown tremendously. Exhibitions in the Joseph Clayes III Gallery focus on nationally and internationally recognized artists. The Rotunda Gallery emphasizes community partnerships or emerging regional artists. The North Reading Room is devoted to showcasing the Athenaeum's Erika and Fred Torri Artists' Books Collection.

Valencia Gallery began with the project Un paso al norte (A step to the north) with the main objective of exposing the artists of Baja California, Mexico in the United States. The gallery provides a space and thus becomes a bridge between commercial mediation and cultural contribution. They intend to build public relations in San Diego County and encouraging the dissemination of an artistic language. The result should be a strengthening of their artistic presence on both sides of the border resulting in a better projection of culture to an ever widening audience.

Art San Diego Contemporary Art Show takes place every year now in November and now at the Activity Center in Balboa Park with an exhibition of more than 50 galleries showing and selling paintings, sculptures, drawings, prints, photographs, video, and cutting edge multimedia artwork. The 4-day schedule includes lectures and conferences with renowned guest speakers; luxury brand displays; city-wide concurrent programs; and a range of exclusive wine and food events.
